Thane: A 51-year-old worker died after getting stuck in a jigger machine at a textile unit in Bhiwandi, a major powerloom hub in Maharashtra's Thane district, police said on Thursday.

The incident took place on Wednesday around 9 pm, when victim Ramesh Arjun Yadav, was working at the unit, an officer from Bhoiwada police station said.

His colleague saw that Yadav, who hailed from Bihar, was stuck in the jigger machine and raised an alarm. Other workers gathered at the spot and pulled Yadav out of the machine. He was rushed to a local hospital, where he was declared dead.
